BEVERLY SUE LUTTRELL

Levon & Bill's first-born (b. 1944)

Beverly Sue Luttrell was the first born of William and Levon Hartley Luttrell. She was born January 5, 1944, in Springfield, MO, while her dad was serving in the U.S. Navy. Her early years were spent on Grandma Hartley's farm at Williams Hollow west of Ava, MO. She has loving memories of her time with Grandma Hartley, and she formed a very special bond with her that would continue her whole life.

Sue remembers Grandma being a very good cook and would always make the best big breakfasts. She also made the best fried chicken, and it is a recipe Sue still uses to this day. There were also many times spent picking blackberries and hazelnuts. Still Sue's favorite flavoring to use in baking is hazelnut.

Sue and Grandma Hartley used to go fishing for catfish on Uncle Eldon's place that was also on Grandma's land. They would use cane poles and then fry up the catfish for dinner. Grandma had a very green thumb and could grow anything and always had a big garden. Sue enjoyed going to Lizzie Eslick's second-hand shop in Ava with Grandma. She has fond memories of Grandma gently combing her hair and making curls in her hair.

Sue welcomed a brother Danny Joe “Joe” on June 8, 1946. They moved to Wichita when she was a young girl, and she remembers playing with all her cousins. She enjoyed lots of pot luck dinners with her Uncle Eldon and Uncle Lawrence’s families. She remembers going to Uncle Lawrence’s farm and all the boys had cars and were constantly tinkering with them. She had a special relationship with her Aunt Mina and Aunt Verda and later in life would talk to them on the phone almost every day.

She fell in love with Larry Masters, also from Wichita, KS, and they were married June 20, 1961. They were blessed with three children Larry Masters II, Terrence L. Masters, and finally a daughter, Tameria Sue Masters. They lived in Wichita, then moved to Haysville, KS, before moving to her
